

Peer Mediation at Mansfield Middle School

The School Counseling Program has initiated a Peer Mediation Program which trains student volunteers to guide peers in conflict resolution. The goal of peer mediation is to work towards a greater understanding of both the issues and the personalities involved.

Being a MMS peer mediator is an important job that requires commitment and reliability. Mediators are expected to keep up with their schoolwork and to model appropriate behavior at all times.

If you have any questions, please see the school counselors, Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Melody in Rooms 109/110.
